~ Our two favorite artists are back for more artsy fun!!

Art Workshop: “Draw yourself!!”
Saturday, March 29, 2014, 2:00-4:00 pm
Ives Main Library, 2nd-Floor Children’s Room

Gabriella Svenningsen is a curatorial assistant in the Department of Prints, Drawings, and Photographs at the Yale University Art Gallery and is completing her master’s degree in children’s literature at Sweden’s Linnaeus University. She was recently a finalist in the Shoreline Arts Alliance’s Tassy Walden Awards.

Marisa Nakasone is the Marcia Brady Tucker Fellow in the Department of Prints, Drawings, and Photographs at the Yale University Art Gallery. She received her M.A. in Humanities from the University of Chicago. While in college, Marisa worked summers as an art instructor for eight- and nine-year-old children at the Honolulu Academy of Art. When she’s not baking the best pies in town, Marisa enjoys reading fiction, watching movies, contemplating donuts and painting.

- First we’ll watch some crazy fun short films to get inspired!
- Then we’ll practice making self-portraits with some expert help!
- Then we’re going to create a great big fabulous something together, but it’s a surprise! You’ll just have to show up to find out what it is!
- Reserve a place for your child (age 8+) by calling the Children’s Reference Desk at (203) 946-8129.
