Hennepin County libraries are places where you can view art!

In December 2000, the Hennepin County Board of Commissioners approved a resolution to develop a policy for the purchase and placement of public art in library building projects. The commissioners recognize that public art “inspires citizens and contributes to civic pride.”

“Stop, Look Art!” features local artists Ta-coumba T. Aiken, Phil Daniels, Janet Lofquist, Christopher Tully and Janey Weston discussing their art in various Hennepin County libraries and their creative processes.

What is public art?

A LOOK AT PUBLIC ART WITHIN HENNEPIN COUNTY LIBRARIES

The production of this DVD is funded with money from Minnesota’s Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund and produced in collaboration with tpt. Special thanks to Library Director Lois Langer Thompson and the Hennepin County Library Board for their support of art in Hennepin County Library.
